When you share your self-referral information on the Your Physio website, See Green Systems Ltd. act as a Processor. The Trust and See Green have a Contract which documents the relationship and See Green will only act upon instructions from the Trust.

What Information are we collecting when you self-refer?

- Basic information about you, such as name, gender, date of birth, address, contact details, NHS number
- Your carer status
- Your military status

We may also process special categories of information that may include:

- Information about your health history that you may choose to disclose as part of your self-referral
- Details about the treatment and care you receive which are relevant to the self-referral

What is our lawful basis for processing your information?

Any personal data we process is done so in accordance with the data protection legislation. Our lawful basis for processing are:

- Article 6(1)(e) Public Task: the processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest, or our official functions, which have a clear basis in law.

Where we process your special category information our lawful basis are:

- Article 9(2)(h) Health and Social purposes; Schedule 1, Part 1 (c) medical diagnosis, (d) the provision of health care or treatment, or (f) the management of health care systems or services or social care systems or services.

We do not need your consent to use your personal information for the delivery of direct care because we have a public task to do this. We use personal information because it is necessary for us to use this to carry out our activities as an NHS organisation.

How long do we keep your information for?

The Trust follows NHS Digitals recommended retention schedule which can be found in the Records Management Code of Practice for Health and Social Care 2016.

Who do we share your information with?

We may share your information with:

- Your GP,
- Where required, other health or medical professionals

Do we transfer your information outside the UK?

We do not transfer this information outside the UK.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under GDPR data subjects have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation
- to request access to your personal data that we hold, and be provided with a copy of it
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted
- to object to your personal data being processed

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO on the address provided above. To put in a Subject Access Request please contact:
